

WBFSH Young Breeders World Championship 2009

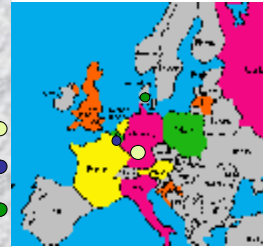

Report to WBFSH General Assembly 4th November 2009

Previous competitions

Three competitions to date

- 2001 – Germany
- 2003 – Belgium
- 2005 - Denmark

2009 WBFSH World Championship

Kildalton College

Piltown, Co Kilkenny - 17th to 19th July

Jointly hosted by

Aims

1. To educate future horse breeders
2. To secure the future of sport horse breeding
3. Encourage leaders of the future

Aims

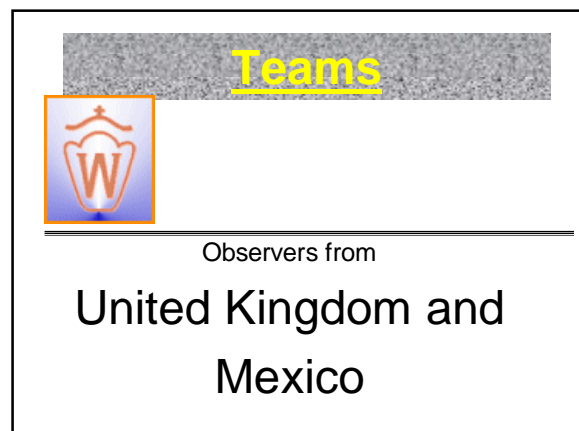

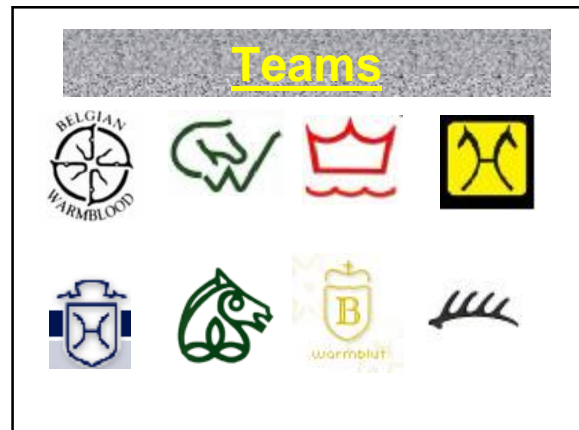

4. Bring together young breeders from different associations, countries and languages
5. Compete in five disciplines
6. Meet socially and make new friends and contacts

Previous Competitions

13 teams took part in 2003

16 teams took part in 2005

The Teams

Two teams of three people

- Junior – aged 16 to 19 years
- Senior – aged 20 to 25 years

1. Theory test

2. Judge gaits and loose jumping

3. Judge conformation of mares

Turn out

4. Show horse in hand

Parade of Teams

Presentation of Mascots

Prize Giving

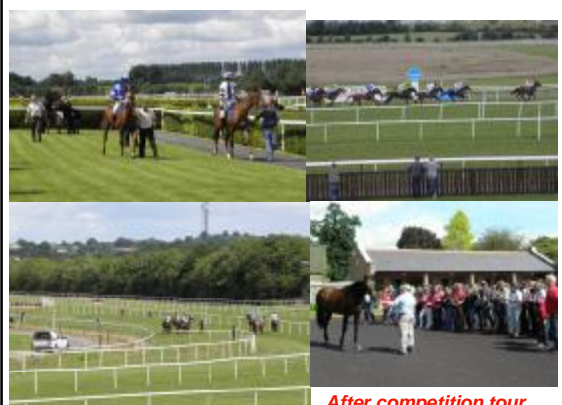

World Champions 2009

Brandenburg Anhalt

Night Life

After competition tour

