IYB Financial position

We are glad to be well supported by the WBFSH.

Every organisation that organises the WBFSH World Championships will receive €3,500. Every year for the website is €1,000 in the budget and additionally the IYB can receive €2,000 on presentation and acceptance of invoices.

26

IYB Financial plans

After an intensive discussion we felt in common with following aims for future:

- We need to improve our public relations. And first of all we need a logo. Sonja Lowenfish from the American Warmblood is already working on this aim.
- The next step will be to improve the awareness level. The main board will find the best way after we have the final logo.

IYB Financial plans

- c. In the discussion about holding a competition in Canada many studbooks said they could not afford the cost. We do not want the richest young breeders to go to the Championships- we would like the best ones.
All agreed that it would be great to have something like a savings box so as we could collect some money every year when the competition would be out of Europe.

We would like to use therefore the balance of the WBFSH budget that we do not use for other things.

Meetings of IYB

IYB Meeting in Lyon
WBFSH General Assembly in Seville– Presentation of IYB
by Celia Clarke and Alison Corbally

2012

No IYB meeting, because huge costs for every delegate.
Instead the Board is allowed to decide quick and effective decisions for further development of the IYB.

2013

IYB Meeting in Sweden
WBFSH General Assembly – Presentation of IYB

Future IYB Championships

- 2013     Sweden
- 2015     Great Britain
- 2017     Canada (TBC)

The Young Breeders World Championship takes place every two years, each time hosted by a different Stud-Book.
